

April 23, 2015

CACI Awarded Prime Position on $5.2 Billion Multiple-Award Contract to Provide Global Intelligence Support to U.S. Army

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE:CACI) announced today it has been selected as a prime contractor to provide intelligence support to the U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) on the Global Intelligence Support Services contract. This five-year multiple-award indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity (IDIQ) contract has a ceiling value of $5.2 billion. It represents new work in CACI's Intelligence market area and positions the company to expand work across many of its other market areas.

The U.S. Army's INSCOM, headquartered in Fort Belvoir, Va., conducts intelligence, security, and information operations for military commanders and national decision makers. The Global Intelligence Support Services contract is a vehicle to provide responsive, competitive acquisition of services for current and future Army intelligence, security, and information operations requirements.

Through the contract, CACI will provide a broad array of intelligence support, including C4ISR (command, control, communications, computers, intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance), logistics and material readiness, and big data management and analytics. CACI has deep knowledge of the INSCOM mission backed by more than a decade of support for INSCOM and its Intelligence Community partners.

John Mengucci, CACI's Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations, said, "This contract award supporting the Intelligence and Security Command demonstrates the U.S. Army's confidence in CACI's ability to quickly deploy responsive solutions to meet the Army's need for intelligence, security, and information operations services to help safeguard the nation."

According to CACI President and Chief Executive Officer Ken Asbury, "This contract supporting the Intelligence and Security Command builds on CACI's long foundation of support to the U.S. Army. It enables us to expand our business in our Intelligence market area while providing for the safety and security of our nation."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. A Fortune magazine World's Most Admired Company in the IT Services industry, CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap 600 Index. CACI provides dynamic careers for over 16,300 employees in 120 offices worldwide. Visit www.caci.com.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2013, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

CACI-Contract

CACI International Inc
Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
703-841-7801
jbrown@caci.com or Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
866-606-3471
ddragics@caci.com

Source: CACI International Inc

