CACI Awarded $60.9 Million Contract From Defense Health Agency to Support Medical Logistics Development and Sustainment

Modernizing Defense Medical Logistics System to Enhance Wounded Warrior Support

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE MKT: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a $60.9 million prime contract by the Department of Defense to continue its support for the Defense Medical Logistics Standard Support (DMLSS) system at the Joint Medical Logistics Functional Development Center at Fort Detrick in Maryland. The nearly three-year contract represents continuing work for CACI in its Health market area.

DMLSS delivers an automated and integrated information system with a comprehensive range of medical materiel, equipment, war reserve materiel, and facilities management functions that support medical treatment facilities caring for U.S. service members worldwide and medical units deployed during contingency operations.

The award enables CACI to broaden its support of Defense Health Agency shared services by providing pre-planned product improvements and modernization, lifecycle management, technical integration support, and reengineering solutions. The company will also assist with expanding DMLSS into the federal civilian arena, modernizing migration efforts, and supporting ongoing system enhancements. Other initiatives include adapting DMLSS for use by the Department of Veterans Affairs for a pilot test and integrating it with pharmacy COTS products, enhancing customer user interfaces, and implementing web services using mobile devices.

John Mengucci, CACI's Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations, said, "This strategic win validates our continued focus on delivering high-value solutions that our Defense Health Agency customer needs in order to continue to provide world-class medical logistics support around the globe."

According to CACI President and Chief Executive Officer Ken Asbury, "CACI's award to continue supporting the Defense Medical Logistics Standard Support system is very gratifying because it serves the critical mission of assuring that medical supplies and equipment reach their destinations, from hospitals in the U.S. to those in combat zones. It's one more facet of CACI's continuing mission to support the nation's troops and wounded warriors."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. A Fortune magazine World's Most Admired Company in the IT Services industry, CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap600 Index.
