CACI to Showcase Solutions for Readyng the Air Fleet and Characterizing the Battlespace

Capabilities Include Multi-INT Analytics and Secure Wireless Communications

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE MKT: CACI) will showcase solutions to support readyng the air fleet and characterizing the battlespace at the Air Force Association's Air and Space Conference and Technology Expo on September 14-16, 2015 at the Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center in National Harbor, Md. The annual conference brings together Air Force leadership, industry experts, academia, and current aerospace specialists from around the world to discuss the issues and challenges facing the U.S. and the aerospace community today.

In keeping with this year's conference theme, "Reinventing the Aerospace Nation," CACI will showcase innovative solutions that support the Air Force customer. These solutions include unique multi-INT analytic and visualization tools that characterize the battlespace and inform mission planning by discovering and exploiting behavioral patterns; integrated product lifecycle and supply chain management to ensure readiness; reverse engineering and avionics testing to maximize fleet performance; and secure smartphone and wireless network communications. Visit CACI at Booth 1232 to view these demonstrations and more.
