

July 14, 2016

CACI Awarded $60.7 Million Task Order to Provide SPAWAR System Center Atlantic Business and Force Support

Work Will Continue Modernization of Legacy Supply Chain and Business Systems

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE MKT: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a $60.7 million task order to continue its support for the modernization of the Naval Tactical Command Support System (NTCSS) for the U.S. Navy's Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Atlantic (SSC Atlantic). The three-year task order under the Business and Force Support (BFS) Pillar contract vehicle represents continuing work for CACI's Business Systems market area.

The NTCSS is the set of systems the Navy uses both ashore and afloat to handle supply chain and logistics management. Installed at over 1,000 sites with 250,000 daily users, the system is essential to the smooth functioning of the Navy's supply chain. Under the contract, CACI will continue to provide full life-cycle development and engineering support for business IT systems that manage supply, finance, personnel, and administration. As CACI modernizes the legacy systems, the Navy will be able to take full advantage of new software, hardware, and technology, while reducing cyber security vulnerabilities.

CACI Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations John Mengucci said, "We have a long history of supporting the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Atlantic through a wide range of solutions, and this contract win cements our leading position in helping modernize Department of Defense supply chain management systems.

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "This is a significant recompile win for CACI. It enhances our position as a leader within business system modernization. This award positions our company to continue to help the Department of Defense more effectively manage the business and logistics systems that keep our fleet supplied, equipped, and mission-ready."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. A Fortune magazine World's Most Admired Company in the IT Services industry, CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap600 Index. CACI provides dynamic careers for over 20,000 employees worldwide. Visit www.caci.com.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2015, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

CACI-Contract

View source version on businesswire.com: <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20160714005071/en/>

CACI International Inc
Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
703-841-7801
jbrown@caci.com

or Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
866-606-3471
ddragics@caci.com

Source: CACI International Inc

News Provided by Acquire Media