CACI Advances Health Business With Strategic New Hire of Antoine (Tony) Azar as Senior Vice President, Health

Highly Credentialed Leader Brings Proven Record of Growing Business in Competitive Markets

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE MKT: CACI) announced today that it has appointed Antoine (Tony) Azar as Senior Vice President, Health to lead the company's growth in its Health market. Mr. Azar brings a proven record of leadership in highly competitive markets, delivering on customer commitments, exceeding targets, and achieving growth for his organizations. This strategic move reflects CACI's commitment to expanding its business in providing solutions and services that improve healthcare delivery systems, enhance population health, better support military medical deployment missions, and provide more insightful health data analytics.

Mr. Azar comes to CACI from Harris Corporation, where he established and managed the company's Government Healthcare Services Business Unit and served as Vice President and General Manager for both Civilian and Health business areas. In this role, he oversaw the capture of tactical and strategic healthcare business and managed operations. His experience also includes a 20-year career at General Dynamics, where he held progressive leadership positions culminating in his role as Vice President, Civilian Solutions for eight years. His portfolio at General Dynamics included the civilian health market.

Mr. Azar is "pleased to join CACI in supporting the nation's vital healthcare needs. We are in a good position to leverage the current services we provide such customers as the Department of Health & Human Services, Veterans Affairs, and Defense health to grow into new areas and bid on larger, more complex programs. I am also proud to join an organization whose commitment to ethics and integrity makes us a trusted partner on important national missions."

CACI Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations John Mengucci said, "Tony Azar is a highly credentialed leader with a demonstrated track record of success in winning business and growing organizations. We look forward to his leadership in advancing the capabilities we bring to our Health customers."

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We welcome Tony Azar as a strategic new hire to lead our growing business in CACI's Health market. He is part of a CACI leadership team that is fully committed to helping our government customers modernize operations and most effectively deliver needed services to American citizens."
