

CACI Awarded $40 Million Task Order to Support Naval Sea Systems Command Headquarters Staff

Arlington, Va., June 5, 2017 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a $40 million task order to provide services and support for the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) that will help improve organizational efficiencies and effectiveness, and will assist in developing the command's workforce. This five-year award was issued under the SeaPort-e contract vehicle and represents new work for CACI in its Logistics and Material Readiness market area.

With a force of 31,000 civilian, military and contract support personnel, NAVSEA is the largest of the Navy's five system commands and is comprised of command staff, headquarters directorates, affiliated Program Executive Offices, and numerous field activities responsible for engineering, building, buying, maintaining and modernizing the U.S. Navy fleet. Under this task order, CACI will provide professional, technical, and consulting assistance and support for NAVSEA's Chief Strategy Office, Chief of Staff, and the Corporate Operations and Total Force Directorate. To deliver this support, CACI will leverage its extensive experience in providing logistics and material readiness solutions for program management, strategic planning, manpower, personnel, training, and workforce development.

According to CACI Chief Operating Officer John Mengucci, "CACI has extensive experience delivering operational efficiencies for multiple Naval Sea Systems Command organizations, across the Naval shipyards, and among affiliated Program Executive Offices that demonstrate the depth and breadth of capabilities we bring to the Navy."

CACI President and CEO Ken Asbury said, "This award with the Naval Sea Systems Command enhances CACI's position as a leading provider of logistics and support solutions and services that advance Navy readiness. We are committed to leveraging our deep expertise and proven performance for the Navy to contribute to the vital national mission of sustaining a strong and modern U.S. fleet."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap600 Index. CACI's sustained commitment to ethics and integrity defines its corporate culture and drives its success. With approximately 19,000 employees worldwide, CACI provides dynamic career opportunities for military veterans and industry professionals to support the nation's most critical missions. Join us! www.caci.com.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

###

Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
(703) 841-7801, jbrown@caci.com

Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
(866) 606-3471, ddragics@caci.com

CACI-Contract Awards