

CACI to Demonstrate Innovative Electronic Warfare, Counter-UAS, and Agile DevSecOps Solutions for Increased Naval Power at WEST 2018

Arlington, Va., January 29, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) will showcase solutions to support the U.S. Navy, Marine Corps, and Joint Community at the WEST 2018 Conference hosted by AFCEA and U.S. Naval Institute February 6-8 at the San Diego Convention Center in San Diego, CA. The theme of this year's conference, "Near-Peer Competition is Back: Are We Ready Now and Into the Future," underscores the need for technologies to combat evolving threats.

CACI will showcase its support of national security and naval readiness with innovative solutions that enable multi-domain battles, including distributed operations and integrated fires. These networked precision electronic warfare solutions allow operators to detect, classify, locate, and defeat targets of interest, and include a product suite of counter-UAS systems. In addition, the company will demonstrate how the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps can rapidly modernize and field cyber-secure applications and hardware using CACI's scalable Agile DevSecOps methodology, its Model-Driven Design and Implementation methodology, and a unique Risk Management Framework solution.
