

CACI Establishes Shared Services Center in Oklahoma

Company Expands Existing Business and Employee Population in the State

Arlington, Va., March 8, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today it will be establishing a Shared Services Center (SSC) in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma with the expectation of an operational SSC by July 1, 2018. By locating its SSC in Oklahoma City, CACI will be expanding its current business and employee population in the state. Oklahoma City provides cost advantages and high-quality talent to support CACI's business operations.

By centralizing some of its transactional business operations in one location, CACI expects to optimize the delivery of cost-effective, quality services with greater reliability and consistency across the company.

CACI President and Chief Executive Officer Ken Asbury said, "We welcome the opportunity to expand our operations in Oklahoma City. The Center will focus on delivering high-quality business support services throughout our company. The efficiencies it creates are another example of CACI investing in the employee experience and providing value to our customers. It further improves our competitiveness and our delivery of long-term shareholder value."

CACI Chief Operating Officer John Mengucci said, "The standardization and automation of fully integrated business systems and processes will greatly benefit our company and our customers. Through new tools, the concentration of talent, and synergies at our Shared Services Center, we will increase productivity and quality services supporting the company."

"I am excited to welcome CACI International Inc to Oklahoma City and the Oklahoma community," said Oklahoma Governor Mary Fallin. "Today's announcement of CACI's new operation center is one more indication that our commitment to pro-business policies is helping to attract a wide variety of jobs and businesses to the state. Oklahoma is proud to host CACI, and we look forward to a long and successful partnership with the company and its employees."

According to Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett, "We are proud to welcome CACI to our community. The economic impact of the jobs CACI is adding is significant. One of the benefits of an Oklahoma City location is our long history and commitment supporting our nation's military and our federal operations such as the FAA, a commitment we both share with CACI in its work. The City of Oklahoma City and all of our partners look forward to working with CACI."
