

CACI to Demonstrate Innovative Electronic Warfare, Counter-UAS, Machine Learning, and Agile DevSecOps Solutions for Increased Naval Power at 2018 Sea-Air-Space Exposition

Arlington, Va., March 29, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) will demonstrate solutions to give America's Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and U.S.-flag Merchant Marine a decisive edge for maritime superiority at the 2018 Sea-Air-Space Exposition hosted by the Navy League April 9-11, 2018 at the Gaylord National Convention Center in National Harbor, Md.

CACI will showcase its support of national security and naval readiness with innovative, integrated solutions that enable multi-domain battles. CACI's networked precision electronic warfare solutions allow operators to detect, classify, locate, and defeat targets of interest, and include a product suite of counter-UAS systems. CACI will also demonstrate how its artificial intelligence and machine learning capabilities can enable large-scale automation to speed decision-making.

In addition, the company will demonstrate logistics and ready-relevant training solutions as well as how the nation's sea services can rapidly modernize and field cyber-secure applications and hardware using CACI's scalable Agile DevSecOps methodology, its Model-Driven Design and Implementation methodology, and a unique Risk Management Framework solution.
