

CACI Awarded Prime Position on $50 Billion Multiple-Award Contract by General Services Administration

Arlington, Va., June 21, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE:CACI) announced today that it was awarded a prime position on a multiple-award, indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract, with a ceiling value of $50 billion, to provide government-wide integrated information technology (IT) solutions under the General Services Administration's (GSA) Alliant 2 contract. The 5-year base year and 5-year option contract represents continuing work for CACI across multiple market areas, including Business Systems, Cyber Security, Enterprise IT, and Intelligence Services.

Alliant 2 is a follow-on to GSA's Alliant program that enables all federal civilian and defense agencies to order IT services for a broad range of needs. These services include support for specific systems and applications, larger systems integration and infrastructure, and related management and training. Under the contract, CACI will offer a broad array of IT solutions in areas including agile development, cyber security, IT operations and maintenance, and cloud computing.

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "CACI's performance under the widely successful Alliant contract demonstrates the importance of the solutions and services we offer our customers across the federal government. CACI's innovative and agile IT solutions allow us to help agencies streamline operations, increase efficiency and reliability, and provide security to help safeguard our nation against evolving threats. We look forward to continuing to provide operational excellence to customers throughout the federal government through this contract."
