About Tremont’s Posts

No Tremont post published on any social media platform is an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy shares of any Tremont investment product to any person in any jurisdiction in which an offer, solicitation, purchase or sale would be unlawful under the laws of such jurisdiction. Tremont’s posts should not be considered an offering of any security, which can only be made by a prospectus. Additionally, all Tremont posts published on any social media platform are for informational purposes only, and should not be considered as investment advice or a recommendation to invest in any particular security, strategy or investment product.

Tremont’s posts on social media may include statements concerning financial market trends, and are based on current market conditions, which will fluctuate and may be superseded by subsequent market events or for other reasons. Historic market trends are not reliable indicators of actual future market behavior or future performance of any particular investment, which may differ materially and should not be relied upon as such. The investment strategy and broad themes discussed therein may be unsuitable for investors depending on the investors’ specific investment objectives and financial situation. Information contained in Tremont’s posts has been obtained from sources believed by Tremont to be reliable, but such sources are not guaranteed to be accurate or useful. Information contained in Tremont’s posts may be incomplete and subject to change. In addition, information regarding these matters may include Tremont’s own views and beliefs, which are matters of opinion and should not be read as facts. You should note that the materials on the social media platforms are provided "as is" without any express or implied warranties. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. All investments involve a degree of risk, including the risk of loss. No part of Tremont's posts may be reproduced in any form, or referred to in any other publication, without express written permission from Tremont.

Tremont posts may provide links to third-party websites only as a convenience and the inclusion of such links does not imply any endorsement, approval, investigation, verification or monitoring by Tremont of any content or information contained within or accessible from the linked sites. Tremont has no control over any such other websites, the contents therein or the products or services of the websites or the operators of the websites. We cannot be and are not responsible for the content or accuracy of the information presented on those websites and we specifically disclaim any responsibility for the privacy policies and customer information practices of those websites and disclaim any liability for any loss or damages that you may incur, directly or indirectly, as a result of your use of them. We reserve the right to terminate a link to a third-party website at any time.

General User Guidelines

Due to the highly regulated nature of our industry, Tremont does not follow other users and, in some instances, may not reply to user comments. Further, Tremont will not publish (e.g., repost or "retweet") individual posts or publications of other users on any social media site, as such publication could be considered by regulators to be an implicit endorsement of the individual post.

Conversely, certain social media sites may allow Tremont to include a list of contacts or "friends" with which Tremont or its personnel may be professionally or otherwise connected. Such a list of contacts and friends would be presented in the ordinary course, and would not be organized so as to identify current or past clients or to create any inference that the friends and contacts experienced favorable results from Tremont's investment advisory services.

Do not attempt to post or otherwise publish any material that is misleading or deceptive on any Tremont social media page or post. Please ensure that your contributions in relation to any Tremont posts are relevant and topical. Do not publish your own advertisements of any kind on any Tremont social media page or with respect to any Tremont posts. We ask you to be respectful and courteous and refrain from publishing, including through hyperlinks, inappropriate or offensive material on any Tremont social media page. Do not attempt to promote investments (this includes posting testimonials, giving investment advice, or making recommendations about specific securities, securities strategies, products or services) on any Tremont social media page. Do not attempt to submit to Tremont any personal, confidential or account information through any Tremont social media page. Tremont is not subject to any obligations of confidentiality regarding information submitted to them through any Tremont social media page or otherwise through any social media platform.

Third-Party Posts on Any Tremont Social Media Page

While Tremont may monitor third-party posts published on any Tremont social media page, such posts are not reviewed before being displayed. Tremont does not list any “skills” on its LinkedIn page. You should assume that any social plug-ins purporting to endorse or provide a statement of a client’s experience with Tremont have not been passed upon, approved, or permitted by Tremont to be published, and Tremont specifically disclaims any involvement with or supervision of such plug-ins.

Third-party posts on any Tremont social media page are the view and responsibility of the third party, not Tremont. Tremont cannot guarantee the appropriateness, accuracy or usefulness of any third-party posts or of any third-party hyperlink, nor is Tremont responsible for any unauthorized or copyrighted materials contributed by a third party in any Tremont social media page. Tremont reserves the right to remove or edit any third-party posts or comments on any Tremont social media page, including any third-party posts or comments, that are inappropriate or that violate (or may violate) applicable laws, regulations or policies.

Tremont does not itself publish or otherwise disseminate statements relating to current or former clients’ positive experiences with or endorsements of Tremont and expects you to refrain from publishing such posts on any Tremont social media page. You should limit your posts on any Tremont social media page to investment themes rather than commenting, positively or negatively, on Tremont, its products, services or personnel. Although our clients may follow this account, the fact that a client follows this account should not be interpreted as a testimonial regarding any client’s experience with our firm.

While Tremont does not currently sponsor advertisements intended to appear on social media sites, any such advertisements that may appear in the future on a social media site on which Tremont holds an account will be easily recognizable to the public as a sponsored statement, and it will be readily apparent to a reader that the advertisement is separate from the public commentary on the social media site.

Any descriptions of, references to, or links to other products, publications or services do not constitute an endorsement, authorization, sponsorship by, or affiliation with Tremont with respect to any hyperlinked site or its sponsor, unless expressly stated in writing by Tremont. Tremont expressly disclaims any responsibility for the posts, the accuracy of the information, and/or the quality of products or services provided by or advertised on these third-party sites, as posted by third parties on any Tremont social media page.

Use Social Media Platforms at Your Own Risk
