Fredrikstad, 1. July 2015: Europris (OSE: EPR) has today received a letter from Skatt Øst on their final decision on the Group's income in 2011. The net effect of the decision in the second quarter accounts will be an increase in net profit of NOK 4.3 million for the Group.

Reference is made to item 8.17 on page 66 in the IPO prospectus regarding an income tax issue, which has been under review by Skatt Øst (Norwegian tax authorities).

In a letter dated 30 June 2015, the final decision of Skatt Øst states that the Group's income in 2011 will be increased by NOK 9.7 million resulting in a tax expense of NOK 2.7 million. In addition, Skatt Øst has decided that no penalty tax will be imposed.

Europris will book the NOK 2.7 million tax expenses in the second quarter. At the same time Europris will release the Group's NOK 7.0 million provisions made in the accounts for 2013 and 2014.

Hence, the net effect in the second quarter 2015 will be an increase in net profit of NOK 4.3 million for the Group.

Europris ASA will not use its right to oppose the final decision from Skatt Øst and the tax issue is hereby settled.
