14 September 2023: Europris ASA has carried out the long-term incentive programme for 2023 covering restricted shares for senior executives of Europris. The restricted shares programme provides participants the opportunity to annually purchase shares with a three-year lock-in period for an amount limited to a maximum of NOK 500 000. The value reduction of the shares from the lock-in period was 14 per cent. This was calculated by an independent firm based on Black & Scholes methodology. The market price for the shares was NOK 60.53 per share, which corresponds to the ten-day volume-weighted average price of Europris' share for the period 31 August to 13 September 2023. The price per share after the value reduction (the purchase price) was NOK 52.06.

The following senior executives discharging managerial responsibilities in Europris ASA have on 14 September 2023 acquired shares in Europris in connection with the long-term incentive programme.

Name / Position / Acquired shares / Updated total shareholding:
Stina Charlene Byre / CFO / 5 763 shares / 22 406 shares
Renate Brattested Spernes / VP strategy and sustainability / 960 shares / 960 shares
Spæren Invest AS, Knut Spæren / VP international sourcing / 9 605 shares / 146 992 shares

Europris sold a total of 16 328 own shares in connection with the programme. Following the transactions, Europris holds 5 921 935 own shares.

For further inquiries, please contact:

Stina Charlene Byre, CFO, stina.byre@europris.no, +47 41 10 58 08
Trine Engløkken, Investor Relations, trine.englokken@europris.no, +47 94 05 09 37

This information is subject to disclosure requirements set out in the Market Abuse Regulation EU 596/2014 Article 19 and the Norwegian Securities Trading Act Section 5-12.

Click here for more information