NEWS RELEASE

Europris ASA: Resignation of director

2024-10-30

Fredrikstad, 30 October 2024

Mr. Claus Juel-Jensen has given the board of Europris ASA the notice that he will resign as director from today. Mr. Juel-Jensen regrets this, but unfortunately he has to prioritise other engagements.

"I would like to thank you all for an educational time on the board and for being part of the successful growth story of Europris. I'm sure that the group will experience continued success, especially with the acquisition of ÖoB in Sweden and I'm looking forward to following this in the years to come," says Mr. Juel-Jensen.

"I would like to thank Claus for his commitment and valuable contributions over several years, both on the board and the audit committee. I wish him all the best for the future," says chair of the board, Mr. Tom Vidar Rygh.
