

Speed Up or Slow Down -
What's Driving Today's Capital Markets?

Every few years there is a drum beat claiming that the U.S. capital markets are broken and that certain market participants appear to profit excessively or unfairly from the system. But traders, banks, brokers, exchanges, asset managers, and individual investors are the engines of legitimate capital formation. This panel will help demystify current front page news and drive home what IRO's need to know to navigate today's markets.

Date:	Monday, September 29th
Time:	8:00am - 9:15am (arrive by 7:45 to register and clear security)
Location:	NYSSA, 1540 Broadway at 45th Street
Fee:	No Charge for Members - Non Member $75

Our Panel of Experts:

Richard Repetto*, sell side analyst and principal at Sandler O'Neill and our moderator, will set a fair and balanced stage and describe today's market players and their roles.

J.T. Farley*, managing director of investor relations at ITG, a provider of execution services for traders, will share his views about what IR should know about the market – in your terms, no acronyms, no interpreter needed.

John Panichi*, a managing director at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, who has experience across all equity markets, will discuss how he works with the buy-side, and general trading trends including high frequency and ETFs.

Ronan Ryan*, chief strategy officer at IEX, one of the market's newest trading venues, will talk about alternatives to traditional equity markets.

Members - Click here to register by return email (no charge)

Non-Members - Click here to register with PayPal ($75 per person) PayPal Click here to pay

Sponsored By:

tangelo