

Meet & Greet With NIRI National's New CEO

James Cudahy

NIRI-NY is pleased to invite members to a social networking reception to meet the new CEO and President of NIRI National, James Cudahy. Jim is coming to NIRI from the National Court Reporters Association, where he served as executive director and CEO managing a staff of 35 and a $7 million budget. In his 24 year career working in and around associations, Jim also worked for nine years at CFA Institute as vice president of marketing and communications, responsible for engineering campaigns to build wider global recognition of the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) credential. We are excited to meet Jim and get a chance to learn more about his background and experience. We hope you will join us!

Date: Wednesday, March 4th
