

ETHICS POLICY FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS

Owens Corning (the “Corporation”) is committed to conducting its business in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations and standards of business conduct, and to full and accurate financial disclosure in compliance with applicable law. This Policy, applicable to the Corporation’s Chief Executive Officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions (collectively, “Senior Officers” and each a “Senior Officer”), sets forth specific policies to guide you in the performance of your duties.

As a Senior Officer, you must not only comply with applicable law. You also must engage in and promote honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships. You are expected to adhere to this Policy, the Owens Corning Code of Conduct and the Conflict of Interest Policy at all times.

Compliance With Laws, Rules And Regulations

You are required to comply with the laws, rules and regulations that govern the conduct of our business and to report any suspected violations to Legal or Corporate Audit Services or to any member of the Business Conduct Council. The Corporation also maintains a confidential reporting system, the Business Conduct Helpline, at 1-800-461-9330 or visiting <http://helpline.owenscorning.com>.

Conflicts Of Interest

No Senior Officer shall make any investment, accept any position or benefits, participate in any transaction or business arrangement, or otherwise act in a manner, that creates or appears to create a conflict of interest with the Corporation unless the Senior Officer makes full disclosure of the facts and circumstances to, and obtains the prior written approval of, the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors.

Disclosures

It is the Corporation’s policy to make full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure, in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, in all reports and documents that the Corporation files with, or submits or furnishes to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and in all other public communications made by the Corporation.

Compliance With Ethics Policy

If you know of or suspect a violation of this Policy, you must immediately report that information to any member of the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors. You will not be subject to retaliation because of a good faith report of a suspected violation.

Violations of this Policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. The Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors shall determine, or shall designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate action in response to violations of this Policy.

Waivers and Amendments Of Ethics Policy

If you would like to seek a waiver of any provision of this Policy, you must make full disclosure of your particular circumstances to the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors. Amendments to and waivers of this Policy will be publicly disclosed as required by applicable laws, rules and regulations.

No Rights Created

This Policy is a statement of certain fundamental principles, policies and procedures that govern the Corporation's Senior Officers in the conduct of the Corporation's business. It is not intended to and does not create any rights in any employee, customer/client, supplier, competitor, stockholder or any other person or entity.
