The Universal Spine is Born.
Jayshree's Blog
Arista is a fitting example of a determined pioneer focused on non-stop innovation, with generations of investment protection for spines at the center of universal cloud networking. I couldn't be more excited as we introduce the "R" generation of Universal Spine networking! Welcome to the new modern world of cloud networking. Read more here.

Introducing the 7500R Series
Arista Networks announced the Arista 7500R Series, a switching and routing platform for cloud service provider and for next generation enterprise data centers. "The Arista 7500R allows Netflix to provide the ultimate user experience while keeping costs in check. Arista's continuous innovation has resulted in novel CDN (Content Delivery Network) architectures, offering breakthrough price/performance at 10x more bandwidth at 1/10th the price of a traditional router," said Dave Temkin, Vice President of Global Networks at Netflix.
