AEVEX Awarded $41 Million Contract to Deliver One-Way Attack Systems

2026-08-20

SOLANA BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- AEVEX Corp. (NYSE: AVEX) announced today that it has received a $41 million award to support U.S. government customers with delivery of one-way attack systems.

This latest award reflects sustained demand for AEVEX's mission-focused unmanned capabilities and expands the company's role across priority operations. AEVEX continues to support critical operational demands, providing assets and mission-ready assistance to U.S. forces.

"Our customers rely on AEVEX to provide precision-driven systems that can be fielded rapidly and perform reliably in complex operational conditions," said Roger Wells, Chief Executive Officer at AEVEX. "This award reinforces that trust. Our one-way attack capability has been shaped by real-world missions, and we remain committed to delivering what the warfighter needs, when they need it, at scale."

AEVEX develops, produces, and supports autonomous systems and mission technologies that are purpose-built for contested environments. Its manufacturing capacity, modular technology architecture, and customer-aligned engineering enable fast adaptation and timely delivery of critical capabilities across air and maritime domains, helping U.S. and allied forces sustain operational advantage.

To meet rising demand, AEVEX continues to invest in expanded production throughput, mission autonomy advancements, and field-focused design efforts aligned with Department of War and international partner requirements. These initiatives reflect the company's broader strategy to support next-generation mission sets and ensure readiness for emerging defense priorities.
