First Horizon CFO Named to Super Women in Business Class of 2025

2025-08-08

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 8, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- First Horizon Corporation (NYSE: FHN or "First Horizon") is proud to announce that Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Hope Dmuchowski has been named to the Memphis Business Journal's Super Women in Business Class of 2025.

This honor celebrates high-achieving women in the Memphis business community who have made significant contributions in their fields and through community involvement. Dmuchowski's inclusion in the 2025 class follows her recognition as the 2023 CFO of the Year in the public company category. This award recognizes her exceptional financial leadership and impact on the regional banking sector.

"Hope brings a unique blend of vision, leadership and integrity to everything she does," said Bryan Jordan, Chairman, President and CEO for First Horizon. "She continues to strengthen our financial foundation while advancing our mission to serve our clients, communities and shareholders with excellence. We're incredibly proud to see her recognized as one of Memphis' most influential women in business."

Dmuchowski joined First Horizon in 2021 and has been instrumental in leading the company's strategic financial initiatives. She also actively mentors emerging leaders across the organization and currently serves on the non-profit boards for the National Salvation Army, where she is the treasurer; 4Word; the Baptist Memorial Healthcare Foundation and is on the Board of Trustees for St. George's Independent School in Collierville, TN. She was also recognized as one of American Banker's The Most Powerful Women in Banking in 2024, is a member of the executive team honored as The Most Powerful Women in Banking Top Team 2024 and was named one of The Most Powerful Women in Banking to Watch in 2023.
