

First Horizon Recognized as a Newsweek America's Greatest Workplace for Women 2025

2025-04-10

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 10, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- First Horizon Corporation (NYSE: FHN), with a proud legacy of growth and innovation, has been named one of America's Greatest Places to Work for Women in 2025, an honor that highlights the bank's commitment to expanding access for its associates.

The recognition, awarded by Newsweek and in its third year, is based on an independent large-scale survey that includes information from interviews of more than 70,000 female workers and more than 1.4 million company reviews.

"At First Horizon, our people are our greatest asset, and this recognition reflects our ongoing commitment to fostering an environment where we live our values and where our associates feel supported and inspired to grow in their career," said Tanya Hart, First Horizon Chief Human Resources Officer. "From our leadership programming to an ongoing commitment to excellence, we are dedicated to creating a culture for associates that attracts and retains top talent."

First Horizon extends its congratulations to all of the honorees included in Newsweek's America's Greatest Workplaces for Women 2025.
