MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 29, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- A new report from American Banker, the premier newspaper focused on the banking industry, ranks the U.S. banks with the best reputations, and First Tennessee comes in at No. 5.

First Tennessee Bank has the largest deposit market share in Tennessee and one of the highest customer retention rates of any bank in the country

First Tennessee Bank was named one of the Top 10 Most Reputable U.S. Banks by American Banker newspaper and the Reputation Institute

First Tennessee ranks second on the list of most reputable banks among customers and sixth among non-customers. First Tennessee also ranks in the top five overall in every dimension of reputation – citizenship, ethics/integrity, innovation, leadership, performance, products and services, and workplace.

“We are extremely proud and honored to be recognized by customers and non-customers alike for the many facets that shape an organization’s reputation,” said Bryan Jordan, chairman and CEO of First Tennessee’s parent company, First Horizon National Corp. (NYSE:FHN). “Our employees are committed to providing differentiated service to every customer at every opportunity. This survey by American Banker illustrates how dedicated our employees are to developing and maintaining those relationships.”

The eighth annual Bank Reputation Survey was conducted by the Reputation Institute and included Federal Reserve banks based on asset size and deposits plus key regional and non-traditional banks – all with significant retail businesses and/or significant retail brands. More than 12,000 individual ratings were collected from customers or non-customers familiar with the companies they rated. Results of the survey are available at americanbanker.com and will be published in the July issue of American Banker magazine.
