NEWS RELEASE

Evolus Announces Departure of its Chief Financial Officer

2025-05-27

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Evolus, Inc. (NASDAQ: EOLS), a performance beauty company with a focus on building an aesthetic portfolio of consumer brands, today announced that its Chief Financial Officer, Sandra Beaver, has resigned effective June 13, 2025, to accept the same position at a private mental health and wellness technology company. Ms. Beaver's resignation is not a result of any disagreement related to the company's operations, policies or practices, including any accounting principles and practices, or related to any financial statements or disclosures.

"On behalf of our employees, our leadership team, and our Board of Directors, I want to thank Sandra for her contributions to Evolus," said David Moatazedi, President and Chief Executive Officer of Evolus. "Her stewardship across several important functions has helped drive our consistent growth and positioned the company for continued success. We enter this next chapter with strong momentum, having recently launched our second product line, achieved record revenues, solidified the balance sheet, and positioned the company for profitability. We wish Sandra continued success as she takes on this new opportunity."

Sandra Beaver, Chief Financial Officer, commented, "It has been an honor to serve as CFO of Evolus and to lead such a talented Finance organization. I'm incredibly proud of what we've accomplished together. The Finance team at Evolus is exceptional, and I am confident they will continue to support the company's strategic and financial objectives moving forward. I leave the company knowing that it is well positioned for continued success and I am excited for its future."

The company has initiated a search to identify her successor and will provide updates as appropriate. In the interim, Evolus' experienced Finance team will continue leading the accounting, finance, and investor relations functions to ensure a smooth transition.
