

Logitech to Begin New Share Buyback Program; Company Announces Completion of CHF 250 Million Buyback, Beginning of CHF 300 Million Buyback

FREMONT, Calif. & ROMANEL-SUR-MORGES, Switzerland, Nov 16, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Logitech International (SWX:LOGN) (Nasdaq:LOGI) today announced that it plans to begin its new 300 million Swiss franc (approximately $227 million) share buyback program in late November 2005. The company also announced that it has completed its earlier share buyback program of 250 million Swiss francs.

On June 16, 2005 Logitech announced that its board of directors had approved the new buyback program and that repurchases under it would start upon completion of the 250 million Swiss franc program initiated in April 2004, and approval of Swiss regulatory authorities. Under the earlier program, completed on Nov. 16, 2005, Logitech repurchased a total of 7,487,257 shares at an average per share price of CHF 33.39 ($26.80).
