Logitech Announces New Share Buyback Program

FREMONT, Calif. & ROMANEL-SUR-MORGES, Switzerland, Jun 19, 2007 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Logitech International (Nasdaq:LOGI) (SWX:LOGN) today announced that its board of directors has approved a new share buyback program, which authorizes the Company to invest up to $250 million to purchase its own shares, subject to the approval of the Swiss Takeover Board. The new program will begin after the Company completes its current share buyback program of $250 million. Under the current program, which began in November 2006, Logitech has repurchased a total of 4,665,700 shares for $128.3 million, as of June 18, 2007.

Under Logitech's share buyback program, shares may be repurchased from time to time on the open market, through block trades or otherwise. Purchases may be started or stopped at any time without prior notice depending on market conditions and other factors.
