

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Pursuant to its Charter, the audit committee (the “Audit Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Kirkland Lake Gold Ltd. (the “Company”) and management (“Management”) are responsible for ensuring that a confidential and anonymous process exists whereby directors, officers, employees, contractors and consultants of the Company (collectively, “Company Personnel”) can report any complaints or expressions of concern with respect to the Company’s Code of Conduct and Ethics, internal controls and legal and regulatory compliance. In order to carry out its responsibilities under its charter, the Audit Committee has adopted this Whistleblower Policy (the “Policy”).

COMMUNICATION OF THE POLICY

To ensure that all Company Personnel are aware of the Policy, a copy of the Policy will be made available on the Company’s website, and all Company Personnel will be informed whenever significant changes are made. New Company Personnel will be provided with a copy of this Policy upon joining or being retained by the Company and will be educated about its importance.

Responsibilities of Audit Committee Regarding Specified Complaints

The Audit Committee shall receive, investigate and act on complaints and expressions of concern (“Complaints”) by Company Personnel regarding, among other things:

- Accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters, including those regarding the circumvention or attempted circumvention of internal accounting controls or that would otherwise constitute a violation of the Company’s accounting policies (an “Accounting Allegation”).
- Compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and any matter, which, in the view of the complainant, is illegal, unethical, contrary to the policies of the Company or in some other manner not right or proper.
- Retaliation against any Company Personnel who make a Complaint.

Responsibilities of the Audit Committee created by these procedures may, at the discretion of the Audit Committee, be delegated to any member of the Audit Committee.

Examples include:

- violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation that relates to corporate reporting and disclosure;
- violation of any corporate policies, including health, safety, environmental, operational, or ethical;
- fraud or deliberate error in the preparation, evaluation, review, or audit of any financial statement of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- fraud or deliberate error in the recording and maintaining of financial or other records of Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- deficiencies in or noncompliance with the Company’s internal policies and controls;

- misrepresentation or a false statement by or to any Company Personnel of the Company respecting a matter contained in the financial records, reports, or audit reports; or
- deviation from full and fair reporting of the Company's consolidated financial condition.
