Earlier in his career, Zaki was a strategy consultant with Booz & Company and worked as an automation engineer for Honeywell. He earned his Bachelor of Science in chemical engineering from Mumbai University and his MBA from Duke University. Zaki will report to Douglas.

He assumes leadership of Investor Relations from Michael Wherley, who is leaving FMC in early August. "We thank Michael for his more than four years serving as IR director during a period of significant change and growth at FMC. We wish him well in his next career endeavor," Douglas said.
