FMC expects the first quarter performance to be driven by stronger segment earnings. In FMC Agricultural Solutions segment, a combination of strong customer demand and lower achieved operating costs are leading to higher earnings. FMC Lithium is also performing very well in the first quarter, driven by continued strong market conditions.

Pierre Brondeau, FMC president, CEO and chairman said: "Given our scheduled meeting with investors today, and to ensure compliance with Reg FD, we have elected to share additional information in regards to our current expectations for FMC's first quarter and full-year performance."
