SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 13, 2020

SALT LAKE CITY , Oct. 13, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- CleanSpark, Inc. (Nasdaq: CLSK), a diversified software and services company today announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary p2klabs (p2k) has received an extension of its professional services contract from LAWCLERK.LEGAL (LAWCLERK) valued in excess of $1 million . p2k is a digital design, marketing, and software development agency in addition to internally supporting CleanSpark's software sales, marketing and user experience team.

CleanSpark Wins Million-Dollar Contract

The client, LAWCLERK, is a B2B legal services marketplace where attorneys can hire freelance lawyers and other professional services. p2klabs has been instrumental in all aspects from concept to execution and development of LAWCLERK's platform, including mobile experience. As LAWCLERK plans to become a leading provider of B2B online legal services in the next year, the 16-month extension with p2k focuses on the execution of innovative design and development initiatives. These enhancements are expected to further strengthen LAWCLERK's standing in the legal marketplace. In addition, the p2klabs team will continue to provide business strategy, project management, and technical support services.

On the recent developments, CleanSpark's CRO and p2klabs founder Amer Tadayon stated, "This contract renewal shows that not only can we attract new business, but we have also proven our value as a trusted partner with our clients. Continuing to work with LAWCLERK and adding a developer like ILAL shows our capability to grow existing business and attract major clients in our target verticals which include energy, hotel/gaming, legal, and healthcare. We have been extremely fortunate to retain existing clients and add new business even during this economic downturn. The support and resources garnered as a result of our acquisition by CleanSpark have enabled p2klabs to increase our focus on execution and growth."

Greg Garman , Co-founder and CEO of LAWCLERK.LEGAL commented, "We've been extremely pleased with p2k's efforts thus far and are excited to continue our partnership which has contributed to exponential growth over a short period of time. Their diverse service offerings which complement our team will expand the capabilities of our legal platform to make a fundamental and lasting change to the practice of law."
