- Earnings per diluted share, excluding CATs^(1,2), increased 1% compared to prior year period

Global Lifestyle

- Net operating income decreased primarily due to $16 million of lower investment income; excluding investment income, earnings increased, mainly from underlying growth in Global Automotive

Global Housing

- Net operating income, excluding catastrophes, increased primarily due to favorable non-catastrophe loss experience across all lines of business driven by lower claims frequency, including underwriting improvements in our sharing economy offerings

Global Preneed

- Net operating income decreased driven mainly by $4 million of non-recurring items, in part due to a system conversion, and updated assumptions for the earnings pattern of new policies
- Higher mortality related to COVID-19 and lower investment income also contributed to the decrease

We undertake no obligation to update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or other developments. For additional information on factors that could affect our actual results, please refer to the factors identified in the reports we file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including but not limited to the risk factors identified in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, each as filed with the SEC.

Exhibit 2: Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Assurant uses the following non-GAAP financial measures to analyze the company's operating performance. Because Assurant's calculation of these measures may differ from similar measures used by other companies, investors should be careful when comparing Assurant's non-GAAP financial measures to those of other companies.

(1) Net operating income equals net income attributable to common stockholders, excluding the Global Preneed goodwill impairment, net realized gains (losses) on investments (which includes unrealized gains (losses) on equity securities and changes in fair value of direct investments in collateralized loan obligations), COVID-19 direct and incremental expenses, the CARES Act tax benefit, foreign exchange gains (losses) from remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities, the net charge related to Iké, as well as other highly variable or unusual items other than reportable catastrophes. Net operating income, excluding reportable catastrophes, excludes reportable catastrophes, which represent catastrophe losses net of reinsurance and client profit sharing adjustments and including reinstatement and other premiums. The company believes net operating income, excluding reportable catastrophes, provides investors a valuable measure of the performance of the company's ongoing business because it excludes items that do not represent the ongoing operations of the company and because it excludes reportable catastrophes, which can be volatile. The comparable GAAP measure is net income attributable to common stockholders.

Assurant uses the following non-GAAP financial measures to analyze the company's operating performance. Because Assurant's calculation of these measures may differ from similar measures used by other companies, investors should be careful when comparing Assurant's non-GAAP financial measures to those of other companies.

(2) Assurant uses net operating income per diluted share, excluding reportable catastrophes, as another important measure of the company's stockholder value. Net operating income per diluted share equals net operating income (defined in prior slide) divided by weighted average diluted shares outstanding, excluding any dilutive effect from the assumed conversion of the mandatory convertible preferred stock prior to the acquisition date. The company believes this metric provides investors a valuable measure of stockholder value because it excludes items that do not represent the ongoing operations of the company. In addition, it excludes the effect of the mandatory convertible preferred stock, which was used to finance the TWG acquisition, prior to the acquisition date. The comparable GAAP measure is net income attributable to common stockholders per diluted share, defined as net income attributable to common stockholders plus any dilutive preferred stock dividends divided by weighted average diluted shares outstanding.

Assurant uses the following non-GAAP financial measures to analyze the company's operating performance. Because Assurant's calculation of these measures may differ from similar measures used by other companies, investors should be careful when comparing Assurant's non-GAAP financial measures to those of other companies.

(3) Corporate and Other net operating loss equals Corporate and Other segment net loss attributable to common stockholders, excluding the Global Preneed goodwill impairment, interest expense, net realized gains (losses) on investments (which includes unrealized gains (losses) on equity securities and changes in fair value of direct investments in collateralized loan obligations), COVID-19 direct and incremental expenses, the CARES Act tax benefit, foreign exchange gains (losses) from remeasurement of monetary assets and liabilities, the net charge related to Iké, as well as other highly variable or unusual items other than reportable catastrophes. The company believes Corporate and Other net operating loss provides investors a valuable measure of the performance of the company's corporate segment because it excludes highly variable items that do not represent the ongoing results of the company's corporate segment. The comparable GAAP measure is Corporate and Other segment net loss attributable to common stockholders.
